

Welcome to the new Digital Collection at ACC Libraries!

Adelaide Libraries are very pleased to offer a large collection of e-books and e-audio books which can be used on your compatible eReader, iPad, smart phone, mp3 player, PC and laptop, giving you more choice and options for access.

The starting collection is made up of bestsellers, new releases, popular titles and classics. Subjects include children's and teen literature, adult literature, mysteries, romance, thrillers, fantasy and historical. Non fiction titles include self development, biography, history and travel.

Titles will be added to the collection every month. Input from our customers will be valuable in shaping the future of the collection.

Collection Overview

There are 2 parts to the collection;

#1. Books which count towards your borrowing limit and require a username and password to borrow

These books have security, or DRM (digital rights management) attached to them, which controls how the book is borrowed. You will be required to use your barcode and PIN to borrow these items (This is the same barcode and PIN that current library members use to access My Account on the library catalogue). The book will expire automatically after the borrowing period is over, meaning not more overdues!

Access this collection at <http://ebooks.adelaidecitycouncil.com>

#2. Books which are in the public domain, and do not count toward your borrowing limit or require any login

This part of the collection contains the classics, and other books that are out of copyright. They do not count towards your borrowing limit or require a username and password to access, and once downloaded are yours to keep. They do not expire as they have no security attached to them.

Authors you can expect to find here are Mark Twain, Louisa May Alcott, Charles Dickens, Bronte sisters, Edgar Allan Poe, J.M. Barrie. Subjects include history, non fiction, languages, humour, biography, romance and short stories.

First time users

Register for an Adobe ID

An Adobe ID is related to the security on the book itself and allows you to access our Adobe DRM protected items. A user must have an Adobe ID if they want to access their books on more than one PC, or device.

If users choose not to obtain an Adobe ID, then they will be able to download items to one computer only. They will have to read the ebook on that computer. They will not be able to transfer the books to a device, or download directly to a device.

To find out how to register for an Adobe ID, visit adelaidecitycouncil.com/ebooks, and look at the instructions under Guide to starting with eBooks under the 'help links'

Borrowing Guidelines

Users may borrow up to 4 items at one time

The loan period can be selected by the user and are 7, 14 or 21 days

If an item is checked out, users can reserve it and will receive an email when the item becomes available. (One user can access the book at a time)

Items cannot be renewed. The book needs to be returned and re-borrowed

Users must login to borrow a book – the login is the same barcode and pin that is used for your library membership

You will not be able to access your account if you have more than 5 overdue items, or if you have over $10 in fines.
